Appendix 2: Tax structure Belgium, Denmark, France, Germany, the Netherlands, Norway, Sweden, United Kingdom
In alphabetical order, selected Eurostat data.¹

Belgium, share of total tax revenues, 2020:
- Labour taxes: 53%
- Green taxes: 6%
- Pollution & resources: 0.3%

Denmark, share of total tax revenues, 2020:
- Labour taxes: 52%
- Green taxes: 7%
- Pollution & resources: 0.4%

France, share of total tax revenues, 2020:
- Labour taxes: 52%
- Green taxes: 5%
- Pollution & resources: 0.3%

Germany, share of total tax revenues, 2020:
- Labour taxes: 59%
- Green taxes: 4%
- Pollution & resources: <0.001%
The Netherlands, share of total tax revenues, 2020:
- Labour taxes: 52%
- Green taxes: 8%
- Pollution & resources: 1.1%

Norway, share of total tax revenues, 2020:
- Labour taxes: 52%
- Green taxes: 5%
- Pollution & resources: 0.2%

Sweden, share of total tax revenues, 2020:
- Labour taxes: 58%
- Green taxes: 5%
- Pollution & resources: 0.1%

United Kingdom, share of total tax revenues, 2019:
- Labour taxes: 39%
- Green taxes: 7%
- Pollution & resources: 0.2%

1 Eurostat (Accessed 10 April 2023), Data on taxation trends. Table 64: Environmental taxes as % of total taxation, Table 44: Taxes on labour as % of total taxation, Table 72: Environmental taxes as % of total taxation - Taxes on pollution and resources. https://taxation-customs.ec.europa.eu/taxation-1/economic-analysis-taxation/data-taxation-trends_en